

DRY AGENTS CLASH OVER 5 PRISONERS

Marshal in Brooklyn Takes Alleged Violators From Court in Manhattan.

TWELVE ARRESTS IN DAY

Raid 'Captain Jack's' Place in Greenwich Village—Two
Held in Jail.

Trouble developed between the Manhattan and Brooklyn Federal authorities yesterday when an attempt was made to transfer five prisoners, arrested in Rockaway for alleged violation of the Volstead act, to the jurisdiction of the Manhattan government authorities.

United States Marshal Power of Brooklyn, when he heard that an attempt had been made to take the cases out of the jurisdiction of the Eastern District, made a vigorous protest.

The result was that the five men, who had been notified to appear before United States Commissioner Hitchcock in Manhattan, were returned to Brooklyn and arraigned before Commissioner Hennessy. Commissioner Hitchcock explained that he thought the arrests were made in the territory under his jurisdiction.

In addition to the five arrested in Rockaway, five other men were arrested in Brooklyn and two were arrested in Manhattan during the day's crusade against violators of the dry laws.

The five arrested in Rockaway gave their names as Thomas McIntyre, 25, 85th-street; Thomas Priachard, 23, Beach 91st-street; Gaetano Gannamorte, 23, Boulevard; Frank Nolan, 23, Boulevard; and Tony Donfire, 15, Boulevard, all of Rockaway. All except Gannamorte were charged with selling or possessing liquor and holding $500 bail each. Gannamorte was held in $1,000 bail, charged with selling and possessing liquor and with maintaining a nuisance.

Commissioner Hennessy held in $1,000 bail each the men arrested by Federal prohibition agents in Brooklyn. They gave their names as David Weiss, 215 Sutter avenue; Henry Knoop, 13 McDougall street; Henry Koster, bartender for Knoop; George Heisenbuttel, 1573 Broadway; and Albert Engelbrecht, bartender for Heisenbuttel. All were charged with selling liquor. It was Weiss' third arrest. Last Wednesday he was fined $50 and given two days in jail.

In Manhattan Federal agents arrested Herman Werner and Amela Pierotti in the Greenwich Village place known as "Captain Jack's" in Waverly place. They were arraigned before Commissioner Hitchcock, charged with maintaining a public nuisance in violation of the Volstead act. They were examined and were each held in $500 bail.

Y. M. C. A. MAN TOTTED 8 QUARTS OF BOOZE

Was Shocked at Result of Exchange of Grips.

Edward Tomlinson, secretary of the Bayonne Y. M. C. A., reached down between his knees in a Jersey City bus yesterday morning and seized the handles of what he thought was the bag in which he had packed his golf clothes preparatory to a trip to Weequahic Park, Newark. Without examining the bag, he jumped off the bus and boarded another, bound for the park. Behind him ran a red faced angry man, but he didn't see him and couldn't know the man carried his grip.

But at the clubhouse it became evident a mistake had been made. Tomlinson, opening the bag he took from the Jersey City bus, found it contained eight quarts of pre-war high power liquor. He started to look for a cop, but never had a chance.

Into the locker room rushed the red faced man.

"That's mine and here's yours," he said, switching bags. "They got mixed on the jit and I followed you in a taxi." He disappeared before Tomlinson could thank him for returning the golf clothes.

'RUM' WAR IN STATE COST OVER $348,000

Anti-Saloon League Paid
$142,762 for 'Orators.'

The Anti-Saloon League of New York State spent $248,049 last year fighting rum and trying to enforce the dry laws. The statement of its expenses was prepared for presentation to-day at the annual meeting of the board of trustees. Fifty members of the governing body will meet in three days' session this week.

The largest item of expense is $142,762 for salaries of staff workers, special Sunday speakers and organizers. There were 127 persons on this salary list and the report states the average was sixty-nine each month. The fiscal year ended April 30. For travelling and hotel expenses of its organizers and orators, the league spent $18,155. The total expenses were $735 more than receipts.

Actress Gives Alimony in Assets.

Grace E. Stevens, now Grace E. Weeks, an actress, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy yesterday in the United States District Court in Brooklyn and among $4,250 in assets she listed $3,550 uncollected alimony. Her liabilities she gave as $6,227. Her former husband, who, she says, owes her the alimony, is Col. Gustave Stevens, attached to an artillery corps now in New Orleans.

BOARD STILL DELAYS PAY INCREASE ACTION

Policemen and Firemen Keep Up Fight for Flat Raise.

Although the finance and budget committee of the Board of Estimate has not arrived at a definite recommendation to the board, it appeared virtually certain yesterday that the $3,000,000 pay increase to city employees will be apportioned on the basis of a percentage increase. The figure will be 20 per cent, unless it is found that there is not enough money to go around at that rate, in which event it is likely the rate will be shaved down.

Whether F. H. La Guardia, President of the Board of Aldermen, will be able to force through the committee his proposal for a $600 maximum upon increases remains to be seen. Failing, he still is determined to fight in the Board of Estimate and the Board of Aldermen to the extent of casting the one vote needed in the Board of Estimate to kill the entire increase if necessary. The rank of the Police and Fire departments have not given up their fight for disbursement of the increases on the basis of a flat sum, though there appears small hope of victory for them.

The committee received yesterday representatives from city departments and institutions asking for a share in the increase.

A Tube that Holds Air Unfailingly

A good inner tube is something vastly different than a piece of rubber tubing shaped to fit a casing—it is the studied solution of the problem of inflation.

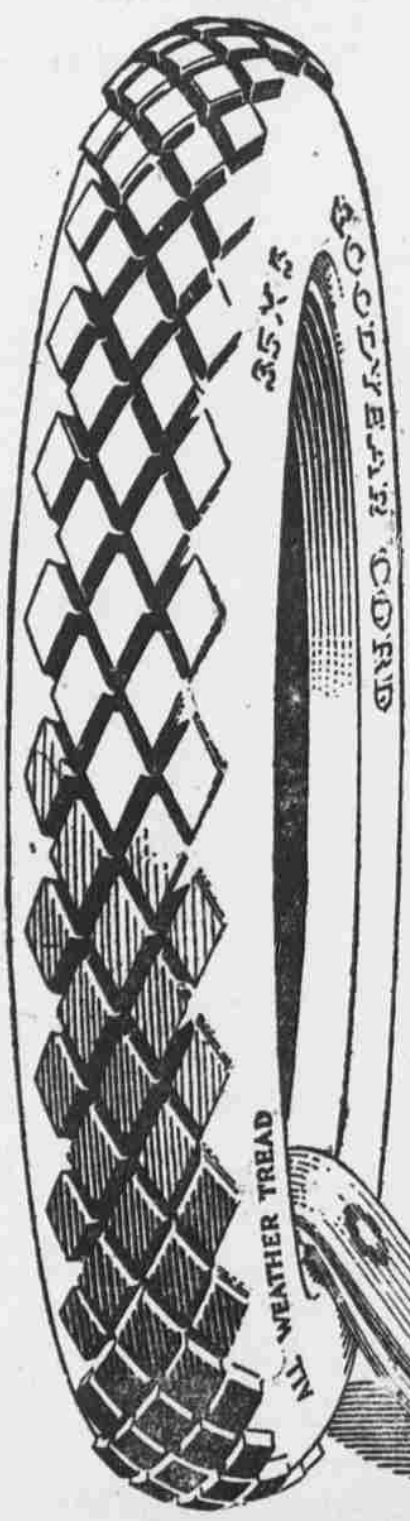

In the manufacture of balloon fabrics we encountered the inflation problem in its most difficult aspects, for balloon gas is much more elusive than air.

The making of a gas-tight balloon-wall required the development of a layer-upon-layer construction so delicate that 32 layers are necessary to spread 4 ounces of rubber on a square yard of fabric.

This layer-upon-layer principle of construction, with its freedom from porosity and imperfections, is embodied in the thick, powerful and elastic Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tube.

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes hold air unfailingly—you can get them, packed in sturdy waterproof bags, from your Goodyear Service Station Dealer.

Their initial cost is no more than the price you are asked for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available?
